

HOT OFF THE PRESS!

Enabling Positive Change: Coaching Conversations in Occupational Therapy

Editors: Wendy Pentland, Jeanette Isaacs-Young, Jen Gash and Amy Heinz

This is the first book to be published that focusses specifically on the use of the coaching approach and coaching conversations in occupational therapy. It's the outcome of an international collaboration of over 15 occupational therapists from five continents who have trained in coaching and are using coaching in their occupational therapy practices.

Enabling Positive Change will appeal to practising therapists, students, those interested in teaching coaching for occupational therapy and it will assist occupational therapy scholars in identifying research questions that need to be asked going forward.

Features include:

- What is coaching and how it can be applied to occupational therapy
- Case scenarios illustrating how coaching can be put into practice
- Stories from occupational therapists worldwide about the uses and impacts of coaching
- Program information on coaching education and certification
- A call to action to enhance professional competencies through coaching, to help address serious world problems by enabling positive human change

For more information and to place an order visit www.caot.ca/publication

Price: $49.99 CAOT member | $62.50 non member (plus applicable shipping and taxes).

eBook price: $37.50 CAOT member | $46.88 non member

